- Accessories that you simply click onto the wall bar and remove just as easily

With almost infinite combinations, your bathroom becomes as unique as you are

The tidier the space, the more relaxing it becomes. When all of your bathroom accessories have a home, the calming effect means you can focus purely on you.

WallStoris is the flexible storage system that creates this harmony. The principle is simple yet adaptable: a bar with modular accessories and an almost infinite number of possible combinations. Just decide on the bar length and set up the storage space according to your own needs.

Whether you choose shelves, racks, hooks or even baskets: you can put the modules together in up to 40,000 different ways.

Installation is simple –
just fix it to the wall
